

Workshop

Ageing and long-term care in German and Japanese communities

November 11, 2022

Location: German Institute for Japanese Studies (DIJ),
Jochi Kioizaka Bldg. 7-1 Kioicho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 102-0094

Time: 09:00 – 18:00

Language: German-Japanese with simultaneous translation

Organizing team

Hiroko Kudo, Chuo University

Tomoo Matsuda, Mitsubishi Research Institute

Gerd Naegele, TU Dortmund

Franz Waldenberger, German Institute for Japanese Studies (DIJ)

Co-organizing institutions

Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, Tokyo

Japanisch Deutsches Zentrum, Berlin

The workshop brings together the German and Japanese authors of the book project. The aim is to discuss the findings of the book project and to explore promising areas for possible future inquiries.

All authors are expected to have read the papers for their sessions. We will therefore not have paper presentations. Instead, every author should give a ten-minute statement addressing the following question:

What are the interesting points (similarities or differences / positive, negative, or just surprising) you take away from reading the contributions about the other country in your section?

In this way, we will focus on the comparative dimension of the book. The short statements will be followed by a moderated discussion.
